

PHARMACEUTICAL GRADE ORAL SOLUTIONS

Made from pharmaceutical-grade raw materials, packaged under strict Good Manufacturing Practices. Full-spectrum products free of fats, waxes, or chlorophylls. Pharmaceutical-grade, guaranteeing dosage, purity, and the absence of wax contaminants. Golden color and pleasant natural flavor, which can be flavored with high quality terpenes upon request.

| Parameters   | Specifications                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|--------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Appearance   | Viscous, liquid solution with a golden color and characteristic odor                                                                                                                           |
| Dosage       | CBD – 15%$\Delta$ -9 THC - <1%                                                                                                                                                             |
| Pesticides   | Compliant with European Pharmacopoeia 2.8.13                                                                                                                                                   |
| Aflatoxins   | Total aflatoxins (Sum of aflatoxins B1, B2, G1, and G2) maximum 20 ppbAflatoxin B1: maximum 5 ppb                                                                                          |
| Heavy metals | Cadmium: maximum 1 ppmLead: maximum 5 ppmMercury: maximum 0.1 ppm                                                                                                                      |
| Microbiology | Total aerobes: maximum $10^4$ cfu/gFungi and yeast: maximum $10^2$ cfu/gGram-bile tolerant bacteria: maximum $10^2$ cfu/gAbsence of E. coli / 1 gAbsence of Salmonella sp/25 g |